Tennessee Association of Middle Schools

Middle grades educators from around the state gather at the Tennessee Association of Middle Schools Annual Summer conference in Sevierville, Tennessee. This conference is dedicated to providing high-quality professional development for middle level educators from all types of schools state-wide. We are interested in sessions that include practical, hands-on solutions and theoretical, research-based presentations. Help build the tool-box of others with your tried and true strategies! Our goal is to offer a varied program selection that lets every attendee walk away with new ideas and strategies to meet their professional goals. Session types include Concurrent Sessions, Table Talk Discussions, and Middle School Matters Coach Talks.

Session Types:

Concurrent Sessions

These are 60-minute sessions dealing with a variety of current topics appropriate to middle level education. Innovative instructional methods, trends, and special programs are featured.

Table Talk

These 30 minute rotations allow for small group discussion and question and answer sessions on current hot topics in education.

Middle School Matters Coach Talk

Highlight innovative ideas from your school. Topics can include RTI, PBIS, Restorative Discipline Practices, PLC's, Curriculum Standards, Personalized Learning, etc. Conference attendees will rotate around in 15 minute rotations to hear so quick tips on how to achieve school success. This high energy presentation type a fun way to get new ideas to try immediately.
